

Module Assessment, Part 1

1 Put a check mark next to the correct statement.

_____ Minerals are made of rocks.

_____ Rocks are made of minerals.

2 Large rocks break down to become small rocks.

This process is called _____.

3 Name two things that cause erosion.

4 Which type of soil lets water pass through more easily? Circle your answer.

sand

clay

5 You have found a dinosaur bone fossil! The rock around it is 100 million years old. How old is the fossil?

Module Assessment, Part 2

- 6 Look at all this trash! Which of these objects will decay in soil? Circle your answers.

- 7 Look at the drawing of an earthworm. Label the parts. Use the words listed.

Centimeter ruler (cm)

head tail segments bristles

- 8 How long is the earthworm? _____ cm

Module Assessment, Part 3

Materials:

tape
magnifier
mystery soil sample in a paper cup paper towel
toothpick

- 9 Pour some soil onto a paper towel. Look at the soil with a magnifier.

Separate the different parts into piles.

Tape a few pieces of each part to the chart.

Label the parts.

- 10 This type of soil is called _____.